

05 LIBRERIA

OK LO TJA
DALLAS, D.
Rabbit's ...

100004748

00155 6

ow Readers are a set of stories for large children to read English at home.

ow Readers revise the key language covered in each stage of the Pathway course. Classes using them are recommended to use the appropriate reader in the second half of each Pupil's Book.

ow Readers can also be used successfully with any course to develop children's reading skills and their knowledge of English.

- Rabbit's Friends
- Boboric's Holiday
- The Lazy Farmer
- The Clever Shoemaker
- Kidnapped!
- A Dangerous Journey

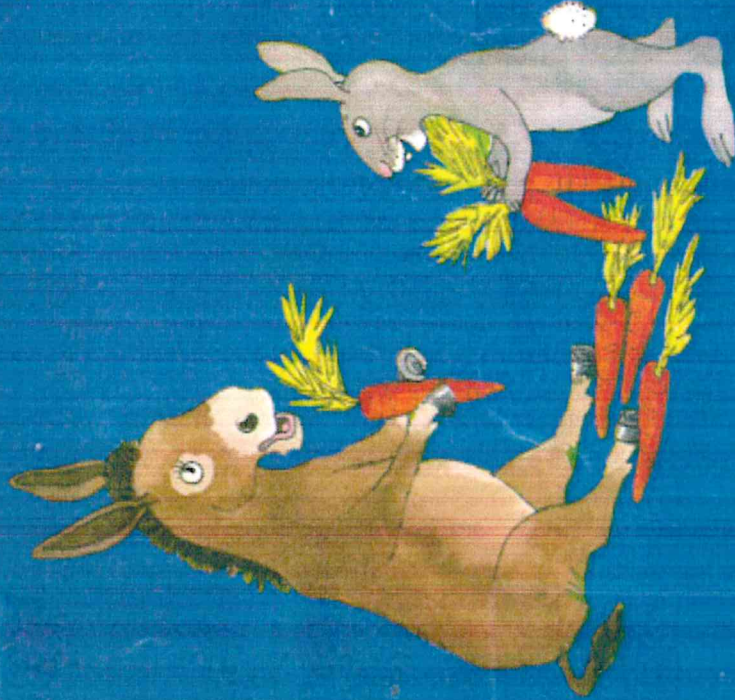

4.r

RAINBOW READERS

Stage 1

Rabbit's Friends

Donald Dallas

RAINBOW READERS

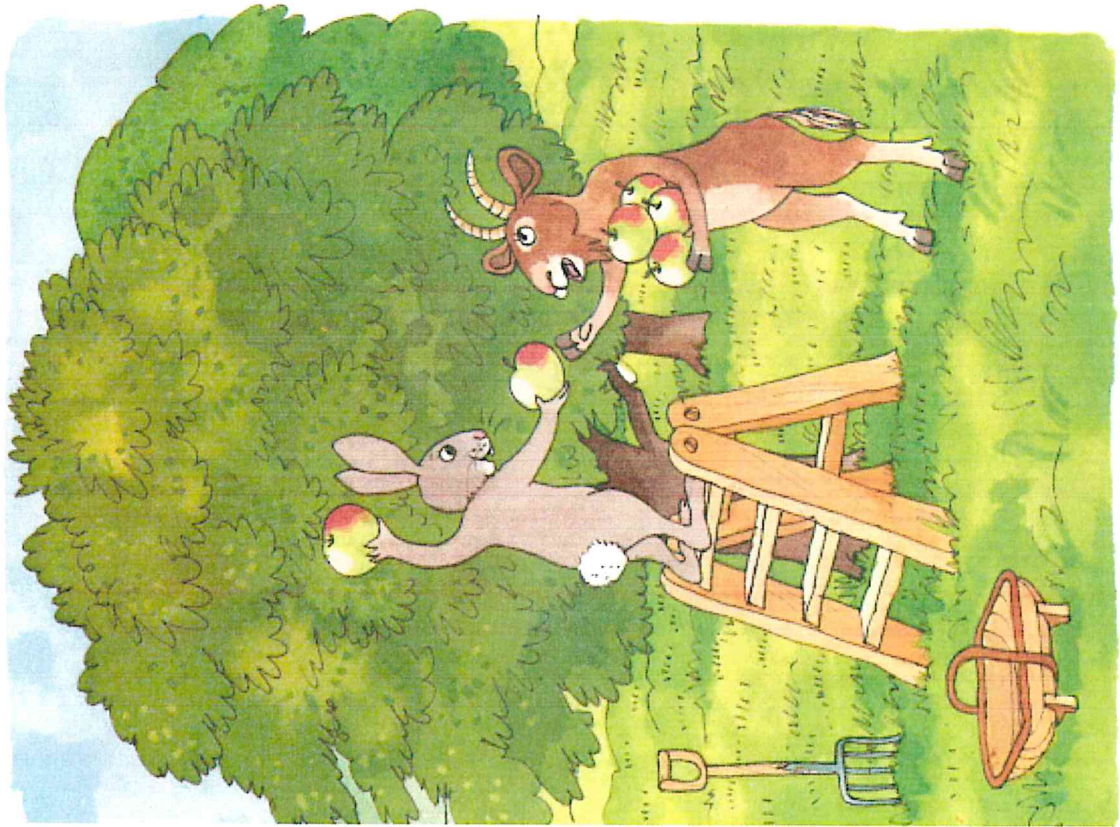

ISBN 0-582-51115-1

9 780582 511156

Rabbit: Hello. My name is Rabbit.
I have a nice house.
I have a nice garden too.

Goat: Hello, Rabbit.

Rabbit: Hello, Goat. How are you?

Goat: I'm very hungry.

Please give me all your apples.

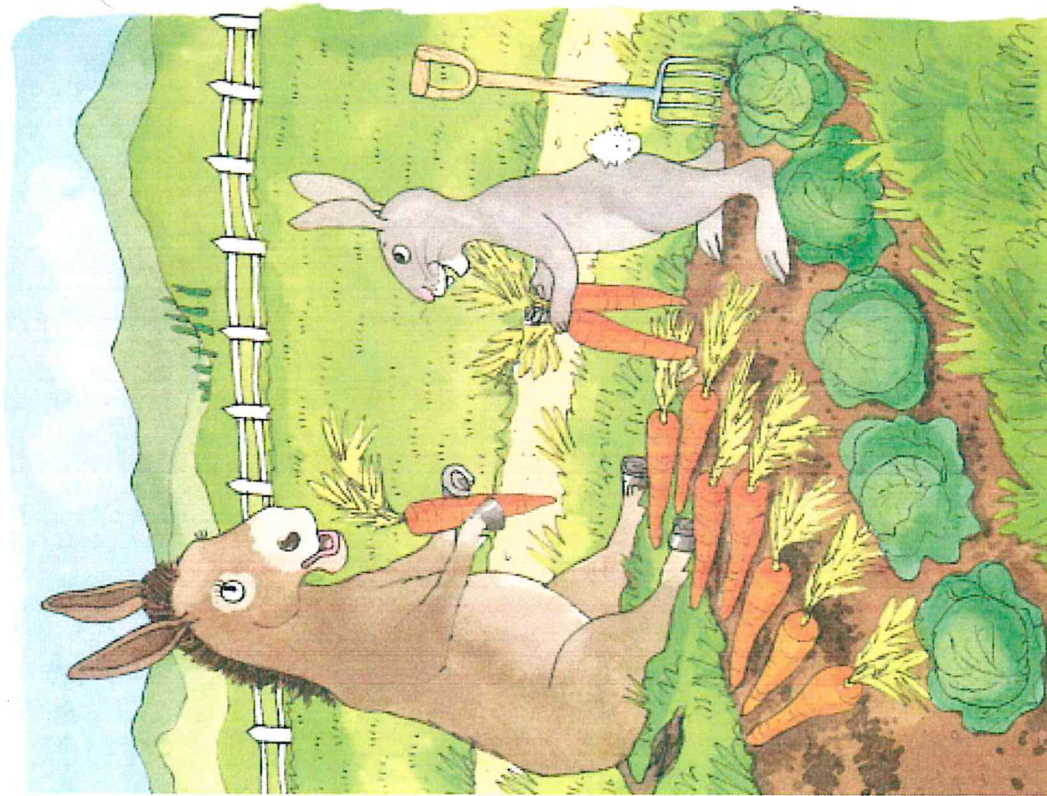

Rabbit: Here are six apples.

Goat: Thank you very much.

You're a good friend.

Goodbye.

Rabbit: Goodbye.

Donkey: Hello, Rabbit.

Rabbit: Hello, Donkey. How are you?

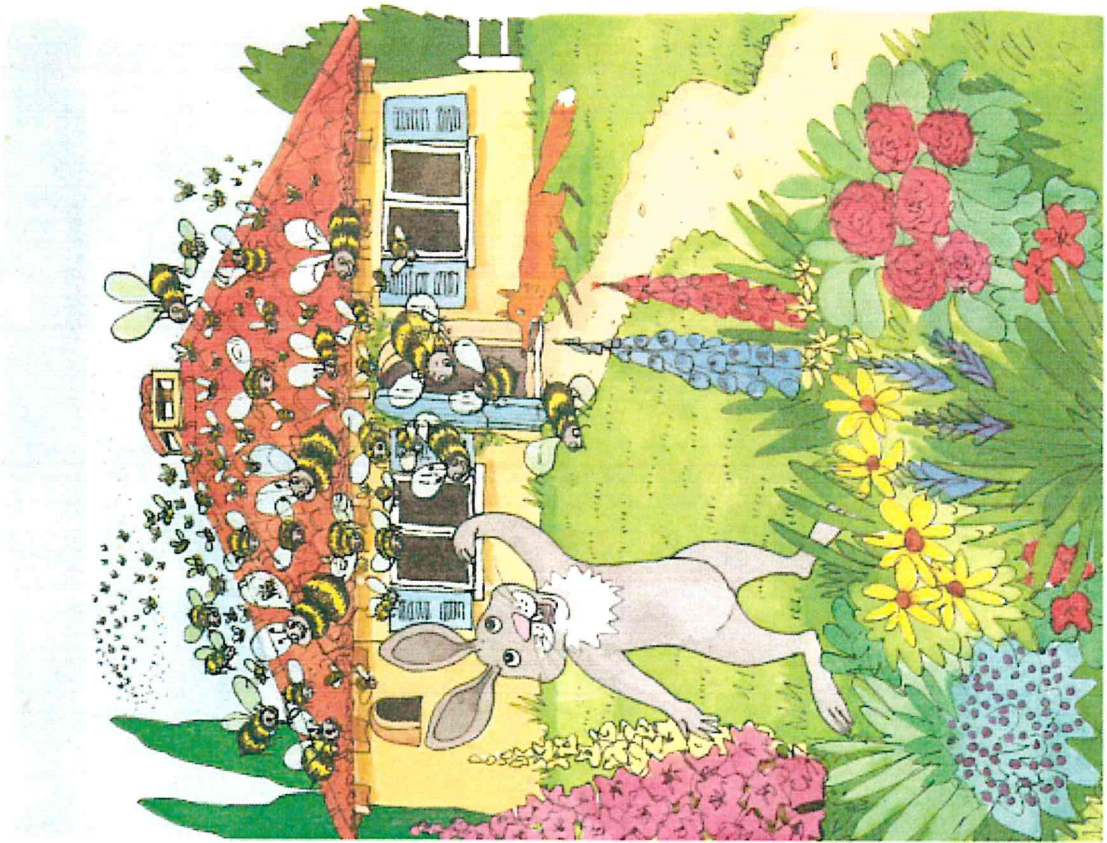

Donkey: I'm very hungry.

Please give me all your carrots.

Rabbit: Here are ten carrots.

Donkey: Thank you very much.

You're a good friend. Goodbye.

Bees: Hello, Rabbit.

Rabbit: Hello, Bees. How are you?

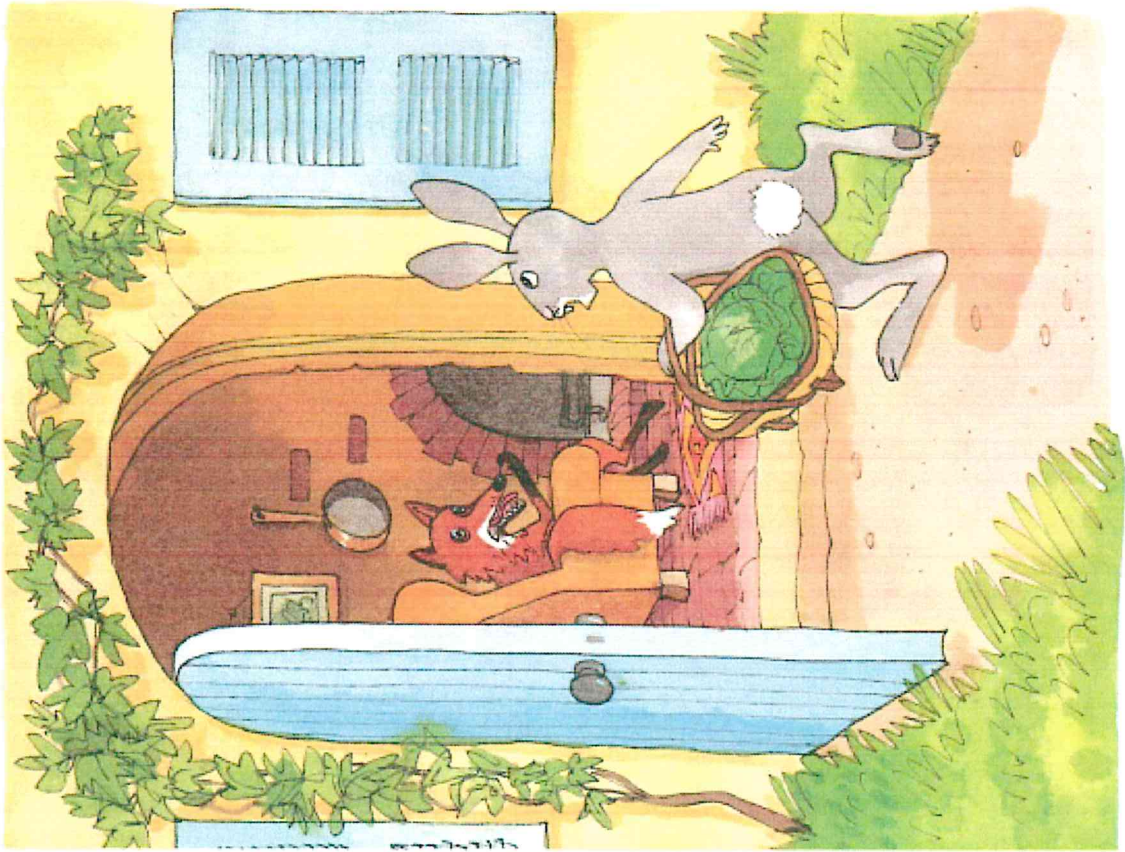

Bees: Fine, thanks.

Your flowers are fantastic.

Rabbit: You're welcome to them, my friends.

Please have some.

Bees: Thank you very much.

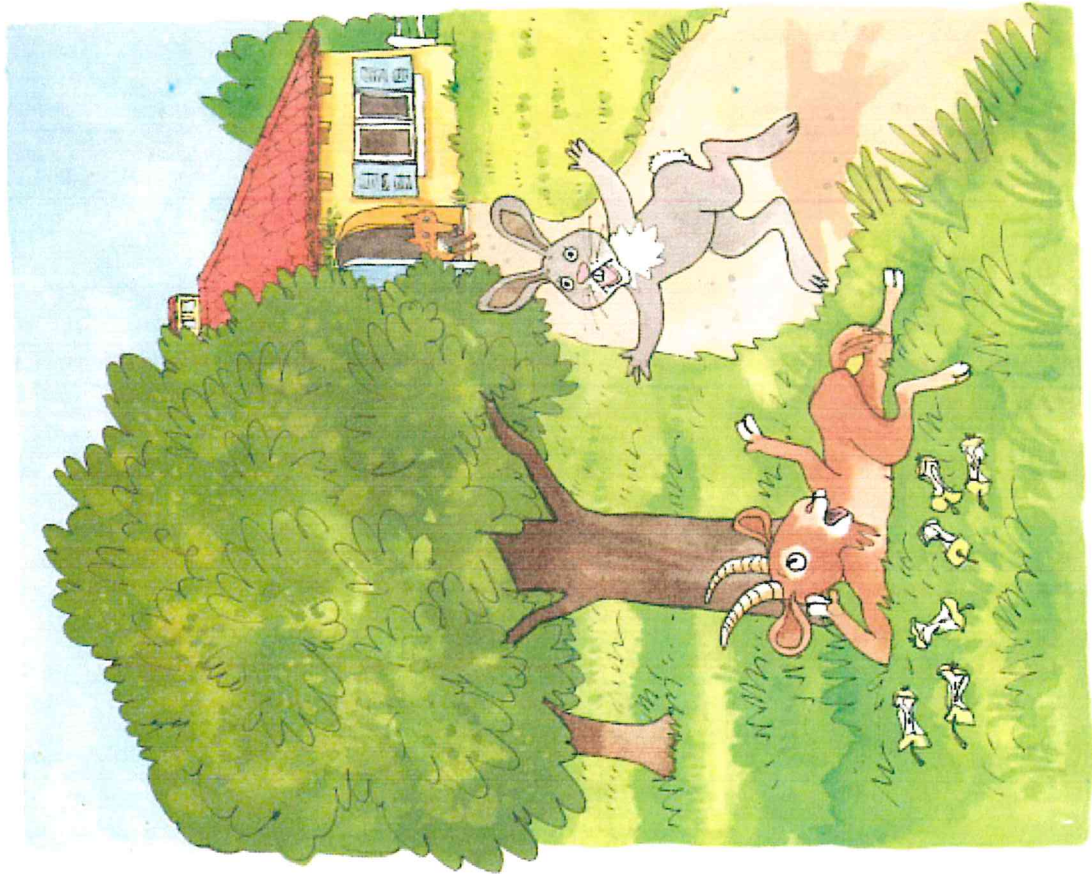

Rabbit: Oh, dear! I'm tired.

Fox: Come in, Rabbit.

Rabbit: Who's that?

Fox: It's me, and I'm very hungry.

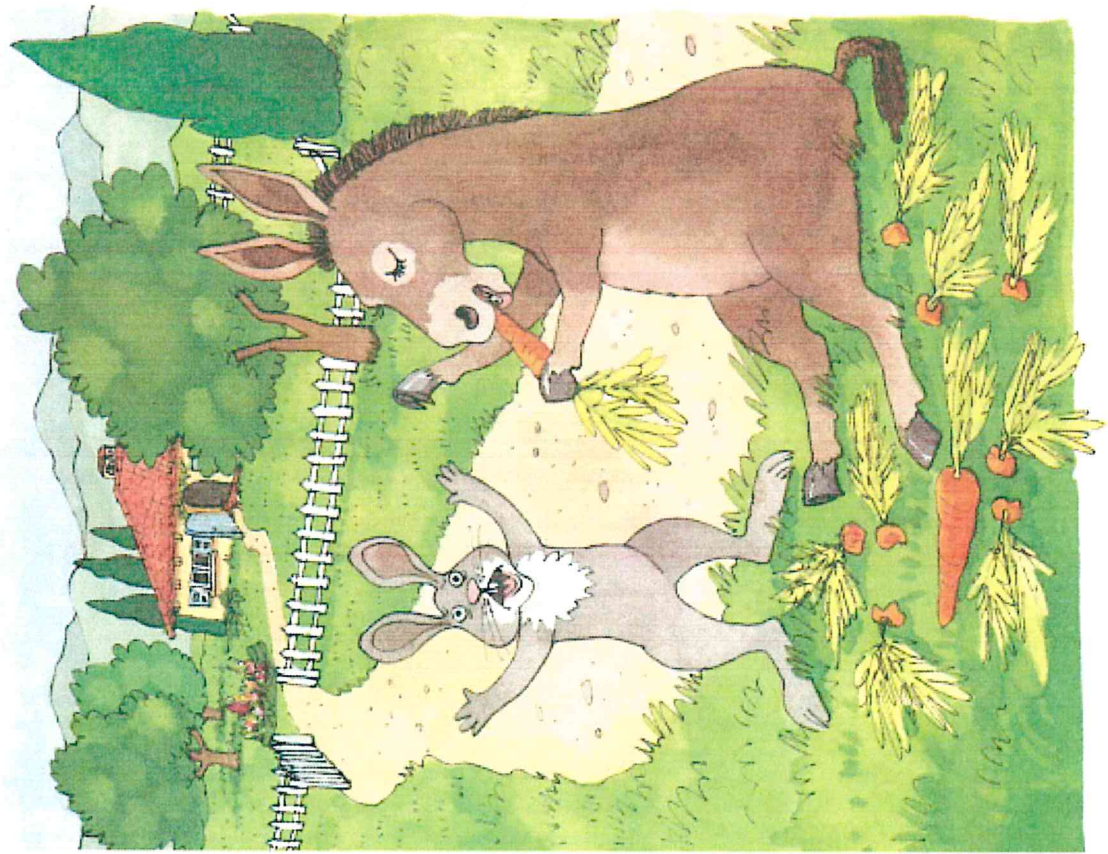

Rabbit: Help! Help! A fox is in my house.
He wants to eat me.

Goat: What does he look like?

Rabbit: He has big white teeth.
Please help me.

Goat: No, I'm sorry. I can't help you.
I'm very tired.

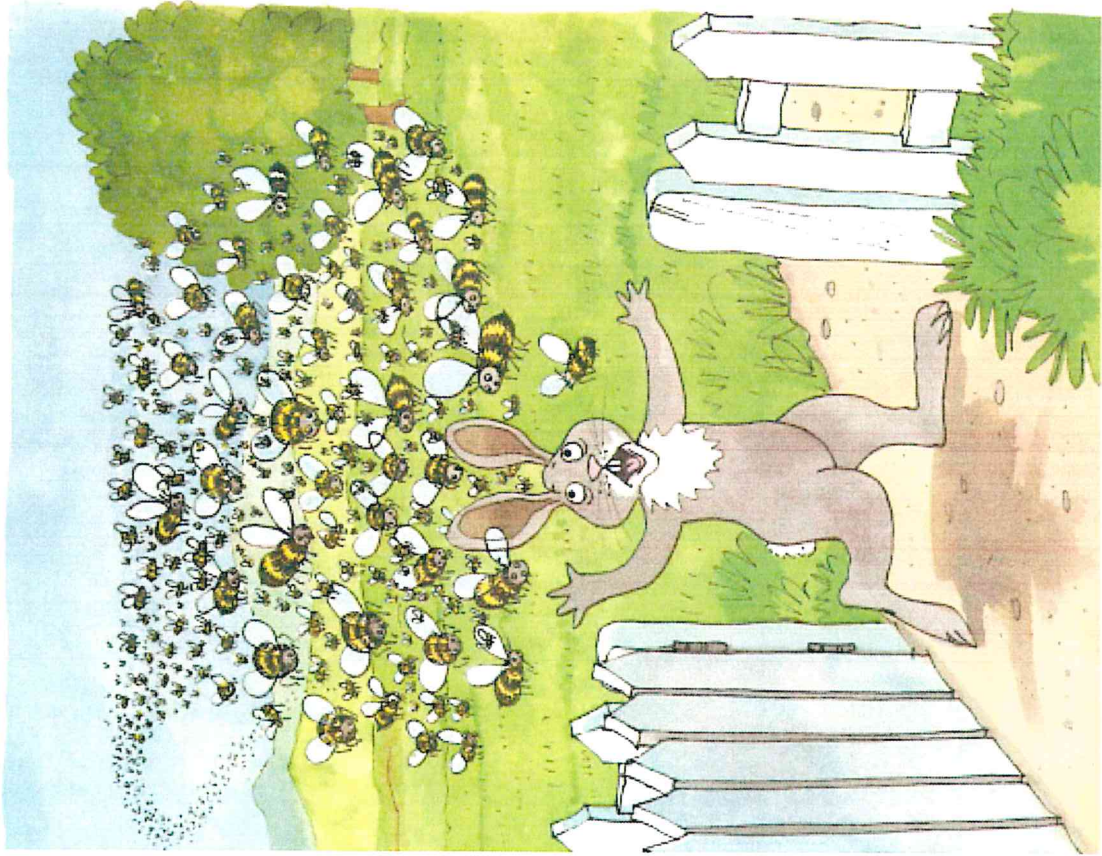

Rabbit: Help! Help! A fox is in my house.
He wants to eat me.

Donkey: What does he look like?

Rabbit: He has big white teeth
and a big red tongue.
Please help me.

Donkey: No, I'm sorry. I can't help you.
I'm very tired.

Rabbit: Help! Help! A fox is in my house.
He wants to eat me.

Bees: What does he look like?

Rabbit: He has big white teeth
and a big red tongue and a black nose.
He wants to eat me. Please help me.

Bees: All right. We're your friends.
Come on! Let's help Rabbit.

Bees: Go away, Fox, and don't come back!
Rabbit: Thank you. You're good friends.
You can live in my garden
and have all my flowers.

