My favourite TV show

I love watching TV. It's one of my hobbies. There is one TV show that has become my favourite, I can watch it anytime and never get bored with it. It has become a huge part of my routine. The show is a TV series, and some kind of a soap or romantic drama. It's called Usodno vino (The Fatal Wine). It is a Slovenian series and it is now running on Pop TV from Monday to Friday at 8 pm.

The main location is Pomjan, a small littoral town in Slovenian Istria. The story revolves around a family winery run by the Dolinars. The series explores many storylines, including a love triangle between Martin, Nina, and Rebeka, as well as the careers of the characters. The show tells the story of finding "the one" in the small town of Pomjan. The show is full of romance, scandal, comedy and everything that makes the audience love it so much, including myself. I will never get bored watching this show.

Nasvet!

- Pri »za in proti« sestavku uporablaj izraze, kot so: I think, I believe, I feel, I don't think, In my opinion, In my view, As I see it itd.
- Uporablaj besede za povezovanje: as, because, for example, however, on the other hand, first, what is more, finally, as a result, moreover itd.
 - As a result, people who watch television a lot stop reading books. Moreover, if everyone in the house watches television, they stop talking to each other, because they simply turn their brain off.
- V zadnjem odstavku uporablaj izraze, ki povzemajo bistvo tvojega sestavka: In conclusion, though, I believe ...; All in all, watching TV ...; All things considered, I firmly believe ...
- V takšnem sestavku lahko neposredno nagovoriš bralca.
 - Can you think of a better way to finish the day?
- Uporabiš lahko retorično vprašanje, tj. vprašanje, na katero ne pričakujemo odgovora.
 - However, can you really relax in front of the television?
 - What else could one expect from a couch potato?
- V takšnih sestavkih po navadi uporabljamo sedanjike (present tenses).
