

PREVERJANJE ZNANJA

Lepo pozdravljeni.

Upam, da ste lepo preživeli praznike. Še enkrat vam zaželim veliko uspehov, zadovoljstva in predvsem zdravja v letu, ki je pred nami.

Današnja ura je namenjena samoocenjevanju.

S spodnjim testom preveri svoje znanje prve in druge enote.

Test rešuj samostojno, kot da si v šoli. Če nimaš možnosti tiskanja, v zvezek napiši zgornji naslov in vanj piši le rešitve. Test ni namenjen pridobivanju ocene, pač pa temu, da si ustvariš realno sliko o svojem znanju. Ko končaš, s pomočjo rešitev popravi napake z RDEČIM pisalom. Seštej si pridobljene točke in si napiši oceno.

Tisto, kar ti v testu ni šlo, na koncu poišči v učbeniku ali zvezku in si snov ponovno preglej. Po potrebi pripravi vprašanje za ure v živo.

Traditional Russian clothing

Russia is one of the biggest countries in the world and the national Russian costumes for women are very different. They depend on the territory, social status and special events. They are easy to wear because they are not tight and women can move and work without difficulties. To put a dress on, women pull it over their head, just like a pullover.

What is special about the Russian national costumes is that everyday clothes and clothes for special occasions look almost the same. They differ in colour, details and decoration. They are very beautiful – the Russian word 'beautiful' comes from the word 'krasny', the Russian for 'red'.

Traditional Russian clothes are made from cotton and/or wool. They are decorated with different patterns, such as ornaments, people and animals. Red, blue, green, white and yellow are the most popular colours. In the Northern parts of Russia, their national costumes are not as rich as in the Southern parts where they are bright and colourful. In the South, they also wear belts and headbands with gold and pearls. People say that Russian national costumes show the old culture of Russia.
